Extra Virgin Olive Oils Competition- EVOOs-RM "Health&Delight" .Guidelines and Rules

1. Organization

The Competition Extra Virgin Olive Oils -EVOOs- RM "Health& Delight" has been organized by the technical team of CM Europe S.L. led by Rosa Marchal.

Rosa Marchal has a degree in chemistry, with broad knowledge in oils and fats and with more than 30 years of experience within the olive oil sector. She is founding member of CM Europe S. L. At this moment, she is the Director of CM Europe S. L. (Accredited Testing laboratory by ENAC with accreditation No. 585 / LE1139) and Manager of the Olive Oil Sensory Panel.

2. Aim of the competition

The Competition EVOOs RM "Health & Delight" aims to reward the best extra virgin olive oil -EVOO- in its different categories, described in these guidelines. This best EVOO will not only have the best organoleptic characteristics but also it will be exceptional for its content in healthy beneficial minor components. For this, the sensory and healthy properties of the EVOOs will be measured quantitatively

The final results will be published in the EVOOs RM "Health & Delight" Guide aimed at consumers. This guide will include all the necessary information to enrich the knowledge of EVOO properties by a consumer.

The EVOO Competition- EVOOs-RM "Health&Delight" is carried out for:

www.guiaaove.com

- a) The knowledge and appreciation by consumers of “Extra Virgin Olive Oils of Excellence”, not only in terms of "sensory" but also from the point of view of "healthy food", because the daily extra virgin olive oil consumption has benefits for health.
- b) To encourage olive oil growers and producers to improve the quality of the finished product, not only sensory but also from the point of view of those minor components related to health.

The participants EVOOs will be included in the RM "Health & Delight" Guide. If the participant does not wish to be published, they should inform it to concurso@cmeuropa.com
